Review from Michael Z:

What a treat!! Toni Morrell knocked my socks off. Her talent - her energy - her style - delightful!! The show is well conceived & performed. David Dial's music felt like a full orchestra was hiding somewhere. Wonderfully entertaining from start to finish. Highly recommended!!

Review from Andrea Szeredy:

If you were fortunate enough to attend the show, you wouldn't give it anything less than 5 STARS. It is terrific in every sense of the word. The husband/wife team presented some great history of the "Legendary Ladies" through music, song, story, & video clips projected on a large screen, all the while, Toni Morrell is performing her heart out. Toni presents the show as her own performer, not as an impersonator, but rather as a sensational artist in her own right. A FANTASTIC evening you should not miss!

Review from Wendy Bass Scharf:

Toni did a marvelous job bringing life to the women that were also on screen. Her voice is wonderful, and I really enjoyed her repertoire of songs done by them. Loved her take on Marlene Dietrich!!... I would recommend highly.

Review from Hastychild:

I loved the Edith Head show at this theatre, so I tried this one on a whim even though I didn't know the performer. I was not disappointed! Toni Morrell is an incredible singer and the videos of the legendary ladies are very entertaining - and on a nice big screen. The show has so much to offer - great songs, great singer, great videos - and I laughed a lot, too. Toni should be better known - she definitely has Broadway talent!

Review from Anat:

An excellent show. Toni Morrell has a great voice and her show is very touching. This is a great tribute to all the ladies we used to watch, listen to and admire. Highly recommended. During the performance I attended, Richard Chamberlain and Linda Gray were in the audience. Esther Williams was supposed to attend that night, but was sick so she was unable to.

Review from Jessica M:

Absolutely top-notch. Toni Morrell is a triple threat -- fine singer, terrific story teller, and she has marvelous rapport with her audience. She is also a kind woman, who admires the women she remembers. Lovely memories of such women as Debbie Reynolds, Marilyn Monroe, and the fantastic women who played Rose in "Gypsy." Also interesting segment with the director, who has worked with many of the ladies.

Review from Sammy Green:

How can somebody see this fantastic show and not to give 5 or even much more STARS to it. This show is a musical history of the famous Ladies we grew up with and is done by a fantastic, lovely, and talented Toni Morrell. A must see!

Review from Art and Judie Hirsh:

A wonderful show - we just loved it!

Review from Carol Koplan:

I loved this show and would love to see it again. Wonderful songs sung by Toni Morrell along with video clips of the ladies of Hollywood. Very entertaining and enjoyable. Bring your friends and relax because you will find this show outstanding.

Review from Miki Friedman:

WOW! What an entertaining show. Run to see it. Some younger people might not remember a Lana Turner or Edith Piaf but will love to be introduced to them. Toni has an incredible voice, is charming and warm. We loved the show.

Review from M. Hogle:

Well-crafted show with a fine plethora of famous legendary ladies of screen stardom presented with energy and warmth by Toni Morrell. Toni sings with a strong voice and personality. She is quick-witted and gracious in her humorous interactions with the audience. Her husband David Dial provides excellent musical accompaniment. An excellent entertaining show.

Review from Halbert Hernandez:

What a beautiful evening! Toni Morrell is just as much of a powerhouse as the women she pays tribute to on the screen. Toni's talent, warmth and passion for performing in union with the images of the ladies she shows makes for a delectable evening of memories and a roller coaster of emotions. Toni really makes everyone feel loved but for some reason, as a gay man, she really hit home with me. The gay community would go crazy and love her. Thank you Toni!

Review from Beryl Brownstein:

Smashing performance by a true professional. Intelligent, charming, poised and with a wonderful, full-throated voice, not a frail squeak pretending to be a pro. Would love to see Toni Morrell again, and if you get a chance, try to catch this show.

Review from Jerry B:

This is the second time I have seen Toni perform. She is wonderful. has a great voice and the show is awesome from start to finish.

Review from Rhoda Wright:

Wonderful show. There were 5 of us ranging in age from 50 to 92 and each of us, of course, remembered different legends Toni sang about. Everyone had a great time remembering the ladies, and listening to the amazing voice of Toni. Thank you for an extremely enjoyable evening.

Review from Nancy Osborne:

Toni Morrell is fantastic!!! What an entertaining show. This lady deserves to be a huge star on Broadway and having someone doing a tribute to her! I hope that happens one day because she deserves it! Not one flaw in this perfect show. Her voice , her flair, her timing is impeccable. Producer and director, Karen G. Cadle and husband, and musical director, David Dial have created a magnificent venue to show off one hell of a lady. Only a strong woman could give such a tribute to such invincible women. Don't miss it!

Review from a Goldstar Member:

What a terrific evening! My husband is always doubtful of my theater choices, but he applauded louder than anyone else. Toni is amazing and the entire show was so entertaining. Grab your hat [or raincoat] and run before the show ends!

Review from suzieQ:

Trudged to this show in the pouring rain and boy, was it worth it. Toni Morrell belongs on a Vegas or Broadway stage. Where are all the talent scouts? This hugely talented lady belts out songs made famous by past Ladies of the Screen while their pictures are projected behind her. It's a long show, about two hours, and we were left wanting more. Do not miss this event. You will not be disappointed.

Review from a Goldstar Member:

The show was simply fab!! Toni is an extremely talented performer and the venue was so intimate, it felt as if she was singing directly to you. Toni's tribute to all the great ladies, past and present, was nicely produced even down to the video editing. Her husband/musical director added a nice touch to the show. Kudos for a great show.

Review from Vi Dupre:

Toni Morrell is a STAR! She pays tribute to those who have gone before her in the realm of entertainment with class and grace plus a warmth that comes from the heart. The voice, the music and the choreography of video and photos is touching and wonderfully presented. David Dial, Music Director is genius coupled with talent putting it all together. Definitely a show to see again...and again.
